

NATURAL SITES

LAKE BIEL

"It was a beautiful Saturday and I decided to bring the children to Lake Biel, in La Neuveville. There weren't any waves and the still water reflected the few clouds in the sky. After a walk in the old town, we decided to make the most of the lake by renting a paddle boat. An amazing trip on the lake with a great view on the Saint Peter's Island and its vineyards."

Hanna

