MAISON WENGER

In the heart of the Franches Montagnes, Chef Jérémy Desbraux and his partner Anaëlle Roze invite you to enjoy the charm and flavours of the Jura region in the emblematic Maison Wenger.

The refinement of both the cuisine and the House will delight you. The region will win your heart with its peaceful beauty, its green and mineral curves marked off by dry stone walls, its iconic fir trees, its unspoilt nature, its distinctively pure and soft light. Indulge your senses.

The Jura-Pass entitles you to free public transport and discounts on many activities in the region! For further information and offers: www.juratourisme.ch/jura-pass
