ORGANIC DELIGHTS IN MURTEN

Ticket reservation is required to participate in this gourmet tour. Sorry, no tickets will be sold on site.
Discover the Gourmet Route in Murten
This gourmet route invites you to take a culinary journey. Dive into a world of flavors and discover organic products from our region, selected for you with passion and care. As you stroll from one stand to the next, take in the beauty of Murten and enjoy a gastronomic highlight.

An 8-course menu accompanied by fine wines
During this culinary escapade, an 8-course menu prepared by our talented chefs awaits you. Each dish is a tribute to the rich diversity of our region, and proudly features the finest organic produce. And to complete your taste experience, we accompany each dish with refined wines, also from the Vully region.

A journey: between gustatory pleasure and unforgettable experience
Our aim is to pamper your senses and provide you with an unforgettable experience. Every bite, every glass of wine and every view transports you to a world of pleasure and discovery.

Local organic products in the spotlight
Every dish is prepared with fresh organic ingredients, grown by local producers with the utmost care and respect for the environment.
Be our guest on this gourmet stroll and experience the harmonious combination of taste bud pleasures and regional diversity. Whether you're a friend, a couple or a family, reserve your place and come and experience the fifth edition of Saveurs Bio à Morat!

GOOD TO KNOW

- Participation in the pleasure tour is possible only after prior registration. No tickets will be sold on site!
- The starting point of the Route Gourmande is in front of the Bern Gate. Visitors start in 30 minute slots (which you can reserve in advance) to avoid waiting times.
- The event takes place in all weather conditions, as the different stations are protected from rain. We recommend participants to be prepared for changing weather conditions and to wear clothes suitable for the weather. This way, you can enjoy the culinary discovery tour carefree and in comfort, whether the sun is shining or it is raining.
- Sustainability
- In the spirit of sustainability, all tableware will be reusable or at least compostable. In addition, all visitors will receive their personal glass as well as cutlery, which will accompany them on this culinary voyage of discovery through Murten's old town.
