BIO-DAYS

The Bio-Days showcase Switzerland's vegetable garden. During your visit, you can explore the Grand Marais by bike or on foot. This stroll will allow you to appreciate the landscape while discovering various crops and engaging with the producers. The accompanying Food Court offers a variety of dishes made from local products, thus promoting a sustainable and environmentally friendly approach. The Bio-Days is an ideal opportunity to familiarise yourself with organic farming practices and savour the riches of nature.
