

BRUNCH, SAICOURT

BRUNCH AT THE MIRAMONT

Brunch is also called " mid-lunch ". It is a type of meal that is eaten in the early afternoon or almost at the end of the morning. At Miramont, this one starts at 10:30 am. It's a sweet and savory combination, since it usually combines the dishes and drinks of the first and second meals of the day, i.e. the combination of breakfast and lunch.

And you enjoy copious discoveries of local products in a warm environment, beautiful meetings and sharing with sometimes small producers and inhabitants of the region. Everything is gathered during these moments, to discover our beautiful region.

The ideal moment for epicureans.
