PAYERNE STREET MARKET

Over two days, Payerne will welcome about seventy traders from around the town and elsewhere for its “Grande Braderie” street market, held every two years along Grand’Rue and Rue de Lausanne. During the event, local traders will be offering goods at cheap and even give-away prices, much to the pleasure of visitors.

Entertainment will be organised for young and old alike while several food stalls will be on hand to delight the palates of gourmet bargain-hunters. Bars and musical entertainment will ensure a warm and welcoming atmosphere.
