THE FARM IN TOWN

For this new edition, The Farm in Town and its animals will appropriate the picturesque streets of the medieval city.

When the city and the countryside mix for a spring weekend in the medieval town of Estavayer-le-Lac. Indeed, a lively farmhouse and its many activities arrive in town to immerse themselves in a universe where local rhymes with conviviality and discovery. More than an event, The Farm in town is a tradition bringing together families and lovers of the agriculture.

On the program: cattle competitions, animal shows including farm animals, activities for children and horse-drawn carriage rides.

Furthermore, a small market focused on artisans, fresh products, local products will take place in the medieval streets.

And for the most gourmands, hot food and a buffet of pastries will be present during all weekend.
