

WINTER ACTIVITY, ESTAVAYER-LE-LAC

SCAVENGER HUNT AND CHOCOLATE FONDUE

In the form of a fun game, participants discover, from Chevroux, the largest lake marsh in Switzerland and all the related themes. Questions and riddles enhance the nature walk. Investigators must demonstrate observation, reflection and memory to successfully resolve the questions of the nine posts. Their efforts are rewarded with a delicious chocolate fondue and a small gift. In short, the treasure hunt is a pleasure for young and old.

GOOD TO KNOW

- The game can be played independently, without the need for any equipment. It starts at the entrance to the Grande Cariçaie in Estavayer-le-Lac. Along the way, there are panels with riddles. Each riddle solved gives access to the next panel, gradually leading to the gourmet treasure, located at the Frogs & Roses Café. The route is available in downloadable files. You need to give advance notice of your visit and make a reservation by telephone with the restaurant on 026 664 01 01 in order to taste the gourmet treasure at the end of the tour.
- Price: CHF 13 per person, payable in the restaurant. The price includes the game, a small gift and a chocolate fondue.
- Start: Entrance to the Grande Cariçaie
- Arrival: Frogs & Roses Café
- Estimated time: 1h30
- Length of route: 5.5km
- Part of the route takes you through the nature reserve and along reclaimed paths
- Free parking at Chemin de la Grande Gouille, near the start and the tennis club
- This excursion takes place in absolute compliance with the rules of the nature reserve, in areas that are free to the public. To avoid disturbing the wildlife and make it easier to observe, dogs must be left at home.
