

WINTER ACTIVITY, ESTAVAYER-LE-LAC

SCAVENGER HUNT AND CHOCOLATE FONDUE

In a playful format, participants set off from Estavayer-le-Lac to discover Switzerland's largest lakeshore marshland, with a special focus on the history of the reserve. Questions, riddles and puzzles enhance the walk in the heart of nature. Explorers must use observation, reasoning and memory to solve the challenges at the eight stations. In short, the treasure hunt is fun for all ages.

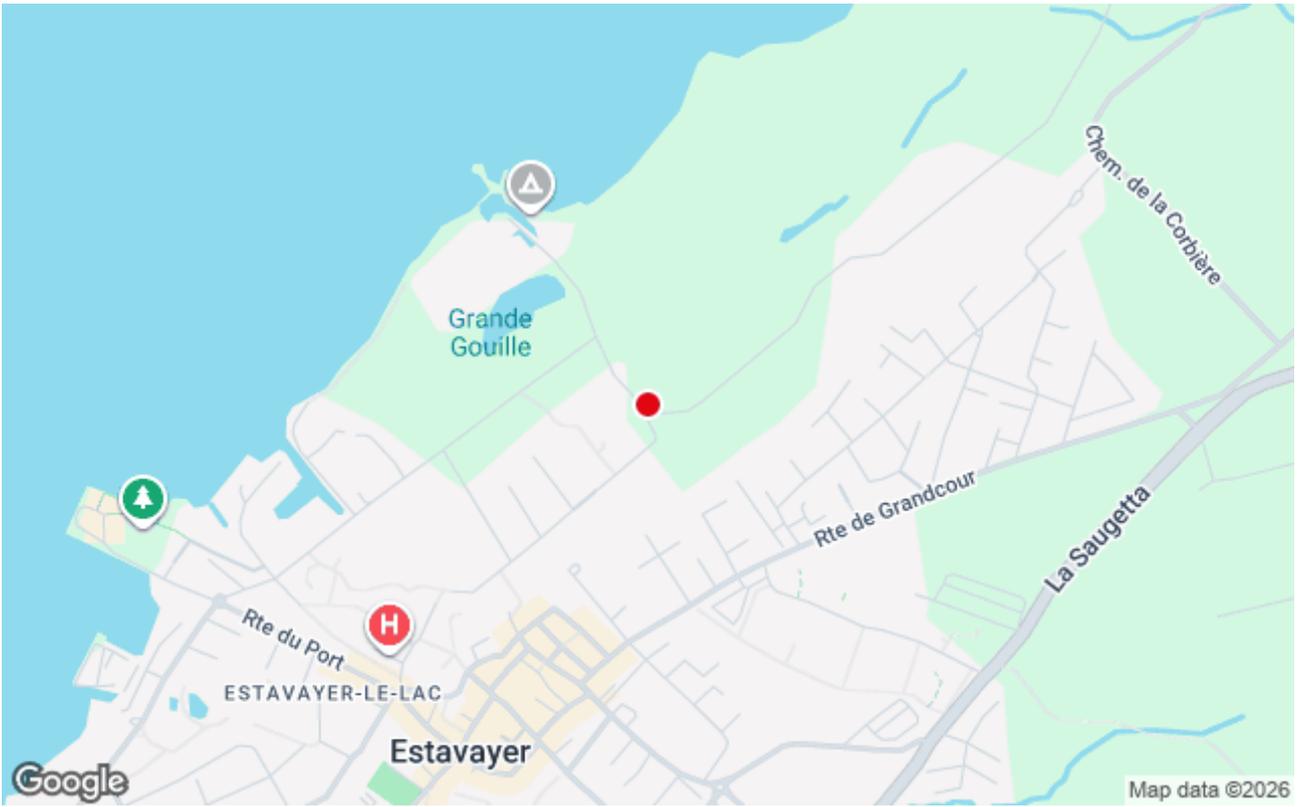

OPENING HOURS

From 29 Nov 2025 to 19 Apr 2026

GOOD TO KNOW

- Access
- Start: Entrance to the Grande Cariçaie in Estavayer-le-Lac
- Route: Loop trail, free return to the starting point
- Parking: free at Chemin de la Grande Gouille, near the start and the tennis club
- How the activity works
- Treasure-hunt trail with free and independent access, no equipment and no reservation required. Riddle panels line the path and guide participants from one station to the next.
- Chocolate fondue
- The route used to end at the Frogs & Roses Café restaurant, where a chocolate fondue was served to participants. Following the closure of the restaurant, the chocolate fondue is unfortunately no longer offered. However, the treasure hunt can still be completed freely and free of charge, independently.
- Duration and distance
- Estimated duration: approx. 1 hr 30 min
- Length: 5.5 km
- Additional information
- Audience: ideal family activity, suitable for children of all ages and accessible with a stroller
- Game languages: French and German
- This excursion takes place in strict compliance with the rules of the nature reserve and in areas open to the public. To avoid disturbing wildlife and to facilitate observation, dogs must be left at home.

PDF généré le 01.03.2026