THE SANDOZ COLLECTION AT THE HEART OF THE MIH

In 2023, the MIH and the Edouard and Maurice Sandoz Foundation have launched a partnership to study and exhibit the Maurice Yves Sandoz watch collection, one of the most prestigious in the world, containing some of the most important timepieces in the history of watchmaking.

This association will help to advance research into, and the promotion of, the Sandoz collection, by placing it in perspective with the watchmaking and mechanical art objects in the MIH collection, for the benefit of a wider public.

The exhibition of this private collection is based on the principle of presenting, within the MIH's reference exhibition, pieces chosen according to regularly renewed themes.
