GUIDED CITY TOUR, AARBERG

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE HUGUENOTS

On 5 September 1687, a boat carrying Huguenot refugees capsized. Today, an innovative visioguide brings this dramatic event back to life at 15 stations – through sound, visuals and augmented reality. The free app offers an easy-to-use experience that requires no prior knowledge.

GOOD TO KNOW

- The visioguide app "Naufrage 05.09.1687" is available for free on the Apple Store and Google Play Store.
- The experience is designed for families and groups.
- Guided tours for groups are available on request. Refugees share their personal stories of flight and integration, creating a moving blend of historical narrative and lived experience. Suitable for school classes and adults.
- At the end of the 7 km trail, enjoy Huguenot specialties at the Hotel-Restaurant Weisses Kreuz in Lyss.
