PLATONOV

A short hike and a show, 2 days in the heart of nature, a play by Anton Chekhov, with 15 fantastic actors, snack breaks to meet up... In short, an unforgettable experience.

Anton Chekhov's monumental early work, Platonov is a sweeping play that paints a portrait of Russian youth mired in the impossible legacy of its fathers. The CCC collective has taken up a challenge as ambitious as it is exhilarating: to perform this masterpiece in its entirety in the great outdoors! The staging relies on the talent and enthusiasm of fifteen remarkable actors, and on the beauty of the landscape. More than just a show, it's a wonderful human adventure that we invite you to share: eleven hours of entertainment over two days that go by like a flash; laughter, emotions, walks and picnics included.

In collaboration with Usinesonore Festival and Le Pommier.
