

GUIDED CITY TOUR, ERLACH

PHILOSOPHICAL WALK WITH ROUSSEAU

Rousseau's reveries are among the great loneliness texts of Western culture. They are exemplary of the modern psyche that seeks authenticity in its innermost self-relationship. Based on the famous fifth walk, which takes place on St Peter's Island, a variety of questions are posed about our lives today. You will be accompanied by a philosopher who will guide you through Rousseau's world of ideas.

This same philosopher slips into the role of a wine sommelier at the beginning - in the sense of an aperitive introduction - and at the end of the walk - in the sense of a digestive conclusion - and serves up Dionysian references to Rousseau and the Lake Biel region
