

NATURE

BETWEEN NATURE RESERVES AND THE SHORE

Crossing the Grande-Cariçaie nature reserve, the largest lakeside marsh in Switzerland, this path allows the visitor to discover unexpected natural beauty just a few steps from town. The walker will be surprised by the diversity of plant and animal species found. Along the route, the Pro Natura Centre Champ-Pittet offers themed exhibitions and a restaurant. Return is also possible by train from Yvonand.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Difficulty: easy
- Distance: 9km
- Difference in altitude +: 80m
- Difference in altitude -: 75m
- Walking time: 2 hrs. 15 minutes
- Place of departure: Yverdon-les-Bains
- Place of arrival: Yvonand

