

FESTIVITY, FESTIVAL, NEUCHÂTEL

PEDALEO

From August 1st to 3rd, the Jeunes-Rives in Neuchâtel become the must-attend gathering for bikepacking enthusiasts.

The festival offers four cycling routes starting from Paris, Freiburg im Breisgau, Como, and St. Gallen — all converging on Neuchâtel in the spirit of adventure by bike.

Talks & Highlights

August 1st – 3:00 PM

Workshop “Route Planning” with Alex Gay (Ride with GPS)

Practical tips on how to design precise, self-sufficient bikepacking routes.

August 2nd – 4:00 PM

“Über alle Grenzen” with Tobias Renggli

At 19, he crossed 44 countries and covered over 36,000 km under his own power. He'll share his photos and the key lessons from this extraordinary journey.

August 2nd – 6:00 PM

Social Ride – 25 km

A relaxed sunset ride followed by a swim in the lake. Limited to 50 participants.

August 2nd – 7:00 PM

“The Competitive Side of Bikepacking” with Robin Gemperle

Winner of the Transcontinental, Atlas Mountain Race, and Tour Divide, he'll talk about the athletic approach to bikepacking — from mental preparation to training strategies.

Also on the program...

- Technical workshops: packing, mechanics, self-sufficiency
- Gear expo: brands and makers dedicated to bike travel
- Live music and campfire evenings
- Lakeside camping: natural setting with access to a swimming pool
- Guided social rides to explore the region with fellow cyclists

Why come?

Pedaleo is all about passion, connection, and inspiration. You'll meet seasoned adventurers, curious newcomers, and key figures from the bikepacking world.

Talks, workshops, rides, and concerts create a one-of-a-kind atmosphere — all centered on the freedom of two wheels.
