

MUSEUM, NEUCHÂTEL

THE TOUR DU FANTASTIQUE

Nestled within the former prison and medieval tower of Neuchâtel's old town, the Tour du Fantastique emerges as a new space devoted to imagination and art. This museum transforms the historic site into a true realm of cultural and fantastical escape. Its inaugural exhibition showcases over 250 drawings and paintings by artist John Howe, spread across four floors in an immersive scenography. Beyond exhibitions, the Tower features a shop, a café with lake views, events, masterclasses, and workshops for all ages. An unmissable destination for lovers of fantasy, science fiction, and visual creation — a place where imagination comes to life.
