M13 AN EXPERIMENTAL FILM ABOUT BEAR LIFE IN TIMES OF GENERAL UNCERTAINTY

The young bear M13, who was strictly protected by international species conservation agreements, was shot shortly after waking from hibernation on 19 February 2013 at 10:15 a.m. in Miralogo (Puschlav) on the orders of the Swiss Federal Hunting Authority. The essay film M13 was shot as part of the art project Z(Orten) 2013 in the canton of Graubünden, following in the footsteps of M13. The camera follows the bear, accompanied by an artichoke, on his journey and shows his merciless fate.
