200 YEARS OF SUCHARD

Dive into the delicious history of Suchard! Two hundred years after the opening of its first factory in Serrières, Neuchâtel celebrates the extraordinary story of the chocolatier who shaped the city and carried its name around the world. Open-air exhibitions, photographs and personal accounts, original guided tours, a digital trail, film screenings, encounters and tastings bring this unique industrial and chocolate-making heritage back to life. From Serrières to the city centre and Boudry, follow in the footsteps of Philippe Suchard and rediscover a legacy that is still very much alive today.
