HOW GOES TOMORROW - CLAUDE BÜHLER

how goes tomorrow is a multimedia long-term work made between 2021 and 2026. Claude Bühler has followed the daily life and work of a solidarity-based farm collective over several years, through photography, sound recordings, video interviews and texts. The work asks how alternative social and ecological practices can be made visible without idealising them, understanding photography not as a distanced document but as a practice of relation.
