

EVENT AWAITING VALIDATION, BÉMONT

FREE HUMAN SUISSE

Overview

Breathe, explore, celebrate life. The Free Human Festival invites you to break free and fully embrace your vibrant self, on October 24, 2026, in the Jura region of Switzerland.

Free Human is back for its second edition on Saturday, October 24, 2026, in the heart of the Franches-Montagnes.

A day to step out of your usual rhythm, reconnect with yourself and awaken the free human being within you.

Through workshops and talks exploring breathwork, movement, intuitive dance, yoga, sound therapy, emotional theatre, family constellations, art therapy, nutrition and inner exploration, you will be invited to move, feel, create, understand and reconnect with your vital energy.

No previous experience is required. Simply come as you are, with your curiosity and the desire to experience something different, in a warm, open and deeply human environment.

A dedicated space will also be available for individual sessions, including 30-minute massages and tuning fork treatments. These limited sessions are available by reservation and at an additional cost to the event ticket.
