MUSEUM, MÔTIERS

JEAN -JACQUES ROUSSEAU MUSEUM

The Musée Rousseau evokes Jean-Jacques Rousseau's stay in Môtiers in two of the four upstairs rooms of the house where he spent 3 years in exile.
Discover some 200 original documents divided into 8 stations, recounting his discovery of Switzerland, the late 15th-century building he lived in, the peculiar dress his infirmities led him to adopt, his social relationships and the portrait he offered his public.

PRICES

Prices per person

Standard entrance fee	CHF 7.-
Group entrance fee	CHF 5.-

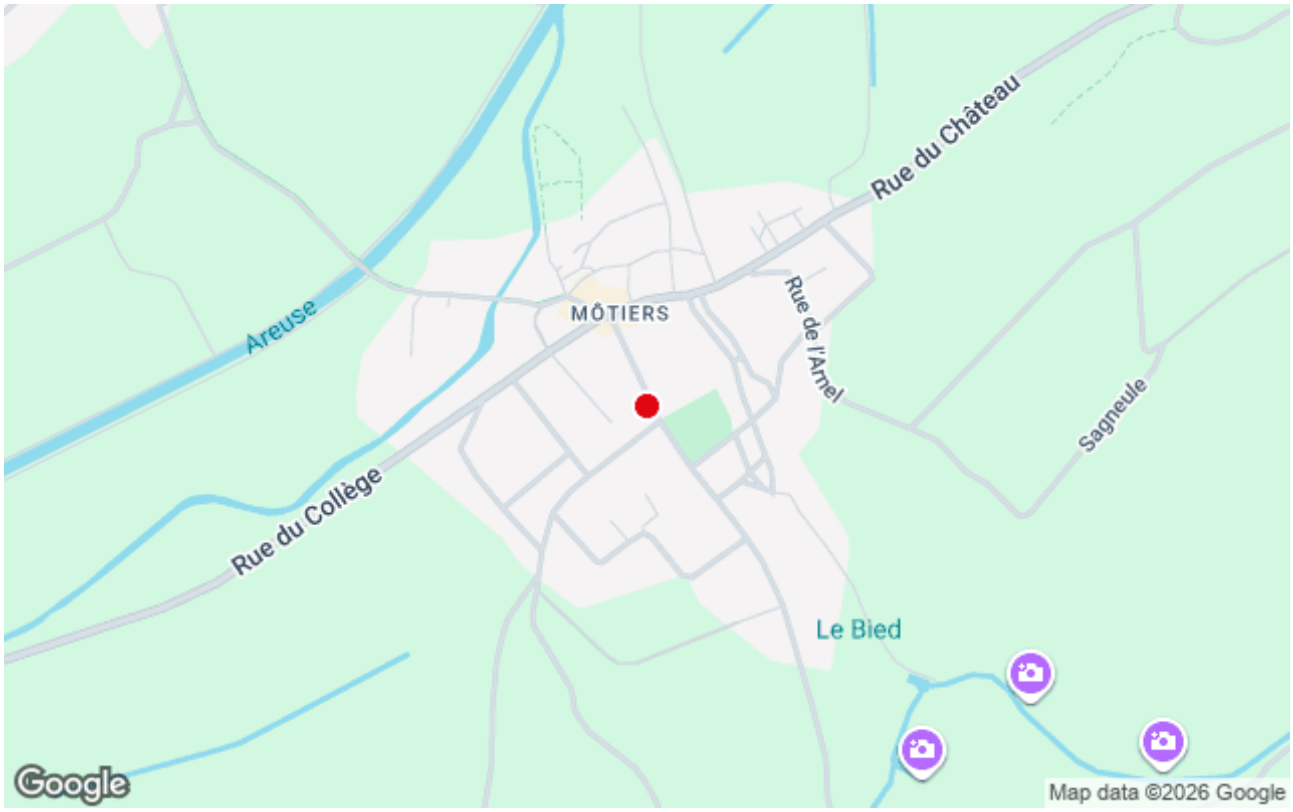

GOOD TO KNOW

- PLEASE NOTE: The museum is closed until the end of 2026
- Access by public transport: Môtiers SBB train station
- The museum may be open exceptionally outside these hours for groups wishing a guided tour
- Tour guides available in French, German, English, Italian or Spanish
- The museum does not accept credit/debit cards
- The visit serves as the starting point for the Promenade de Jean-Jacques Rousseau, a walk marked out by 60 bronze pebbles through the village and up to the famous Cascade mentioned in the second Lettre au Maréchal de Luxembourg

CONTACT

Musée Jean-Jacques Rousseau
Rue Jean-Jacques Rousseau 2
2112 Môtiers

+41 32 860 11 94
info@museerousseau.ch
cadsandria.synology.me

PDF généré le 02.11.2026