BEE WORLD

Discover the fascinating world of bees and dive into the heart of their remarkable organisation. Thanks to glass hives, you can observe life inside the colony up close, while the observatory lets you follow their comings and goings in complete safety. Depending on the season, you may also witness the dedicated work of beekeepers. Educational panels and short films enrich the visit and help you better understand the lifestyle, essential role and richness of these insects, which are vital to our environment.
