

TOWN, TWANN

TWANN

The historic winegrowing village of Twann is based on the left-hand banks of Lake Biel. Winegrowing has been taking place in Twann since the 12th century and fishing since the Neolithic. This cozy winegrowing village is the starting point for beautiful excursions. Narrow lanes, old houses and fountains characterise the dreamingly romantic village which resembles a medieval town.

GOOD TO KNOW

- The house of Lake Biel wines is home to the regional wine information centre and the Federation of Lake Biel Winegrowers.
- The official wine cellar, Viniterra.

