RIDING

EQUESTRIAN NETWORKS IN THE JURA

The canton of Jura has more than 1,100 kilometres of signposted equestrian trails, with various connections to the canton of Neuchâtel and the Grand Chasseral region. Along all these routes, accommodation with stalls and suitable restaurants can be found.

The networks in detail:

- Equestrian network of the Franches-Montagnes and surrounding areas: 340 kilometres of signposted trails;
- Equestrian network of Ajoie-West: 140 kilometres of signposted trails;
- Equestrian network of AJoie-East: 150 kilometres of signposted trails;
- Equestrian network of the Clos du Doubs: 90 kilometres of signposted trails;
- Equestrian network of Haut-Plateau & Haute-Sorne: 250 kilometres of signposted trails;
- Equestrian network of Delémont - Val Terbi: 140 kilometres of signposted trails.

PRICES

Prices per person

| | |
|---|---|
| Fee to use the AREJ riding trail network (for one day) | CHF 7.- |
| Topographic map of the AREJ riding trail network | CHF 18.- |

GOOD TO KNOW

- Stickers for the equestrian networks are available at Jura Tourism offices, at the stables offering stalls for horses and can also be ordered online.
- Maps of the different networks can be purchased at the tourist offices or ordered online.
- In the canton of Jura, there is a network of prepared and signposted winter trails.

PDF généré le 08.11.2026