REGIONAL PRODUCTS, DELÉMONT

BRASSERIE ET MALTERIE BLANCHE PIERRE

The Brasserie Blanche Pierre is a microbrewery located in a cellar of the Rue Blanche Pierre in Delémont since 2013. Here, Sandro and Elena are brewing three different beers with an output of about 400 liters per week, based on carefully selected organic and local ingredients.
The brewery produces 4 Jura malt beers with the Spécialité du Canton du Jura label, available in bottles and/or draught, and a brewed cider. Direct sales on Fridays from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. or by appointment. Visits and tastings available for groups by reservation and small groups possible every day, events on request.

PRICES

Price of visits

"Soif de Curieux" package, per person	CHF 25.-
"Eating is Cheating" package, per person	CHF 35.-
"From Field to Glass' package with guided tour, per person	CHF 50.-
"Full Service' package with guided tour and meal, per person	CHF 85.-

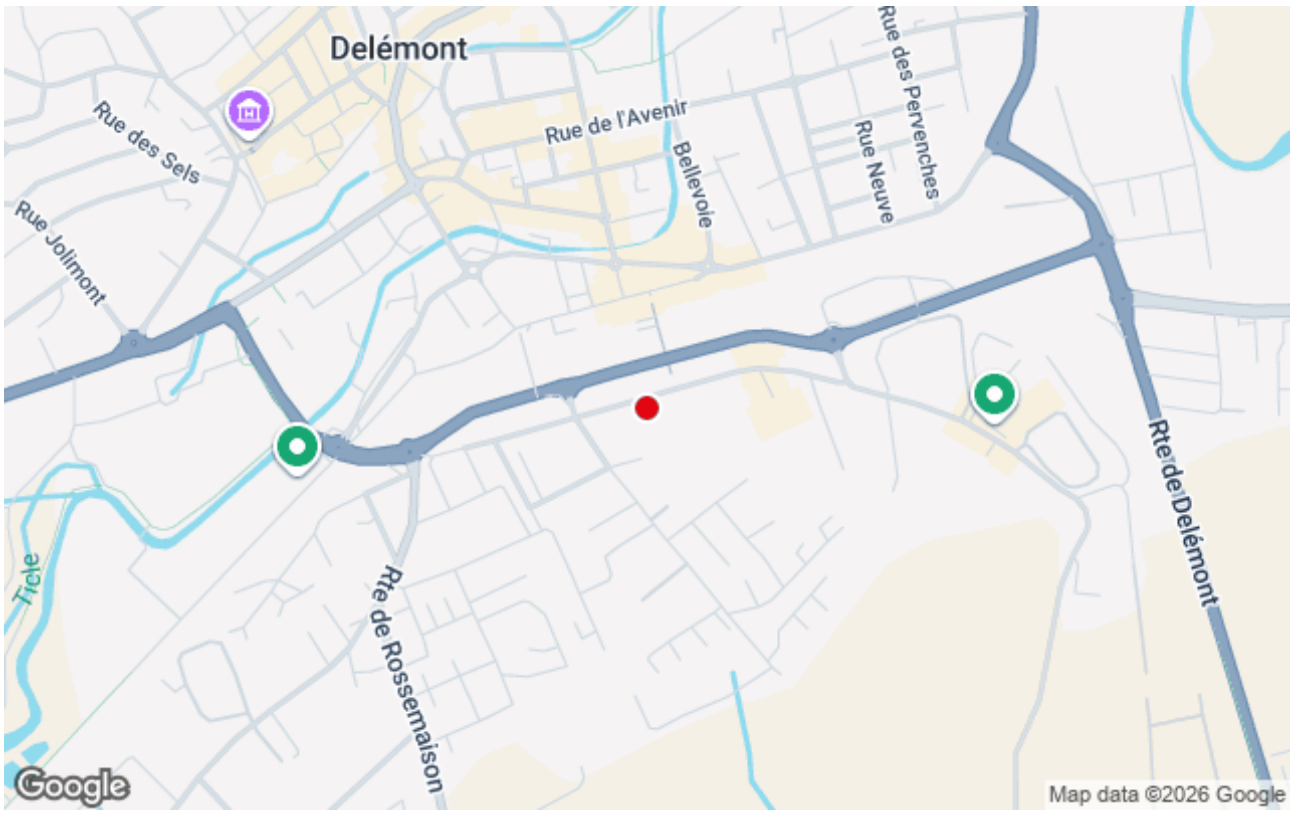

GOOD TO KNOW

- During tours and tastings, the brewery offers games to enhance your tasting experience, in collaboration with Jura Découverte Nature.
- Home deliveries in the Jura region.
- With the JURA-PASS, get 20% discount on a visit and tasting tour (from 15 persons).

CONTACT

Brasserie et Malterie Blanche Pierre
Rue Emile-Boéchat 34
2800 Delémont

+41 79 888 38 45
brasserie@blanchepierre.ch
blanchepierre.ch

PDF généré le 15.11.2026