ELECTRONIC NETWORK STATIONS

Orienteering sports enjoy long-standing tradition in Magglingen. Now the Swiss Federal Office of Sport FOSPO has a permanent electronic network of the latest generation for orienteering that greatly benefits education and training. In the number of 48, they materialize 7 routes of varying length and difficulty, connected in a Network.

GOOD TO KNOW

- The facility is accessible to all.
- 48 stations, equipped with an electronic unit and light strip (for those engaging in the sport at night).
- Seven diverse orienteering tracks for beginners to well-practised persons.
- The posts are located on the site of the Fospo and in the surrounding woods.
- Orienteering cards and chips to mark-off at the stations are available free of charge at the reception desk of the Swiss Olympic House during opening hours.
- Access: by car or with the Funi Magglingen.
