Get ready for three days of music and festivities! Following the success of previous editions, the International Boogie Woogie Festival returns to La Neuveville from 19 to 21 March 2027, much to the delight of music lovers and curious visitors alike.

Throughout the weekend, internationally renowned pianists and other talented musicians will bring the old town to life with the lively rhythms of Boogie Woogie. Expect impressive performances, musical encounters and a warm, festive atmosphere!

Friday, 19 March from 8 pm – Boogie Woogie Show
Join us at the Café-théâtre de La Tour de Rive for a spectacular show featuring talented pianists performing solo, in duos or trios on two pianos, accompanied by other musicians.

Saturday, 20 March from 7 pm – Boogie Woogie Tour
Four pianists will perform simultaneously at four different venues in the old town, with 30-minute sessions at each location. Visitors can freely move between venues, enjoy the concerts, grab a bite to eat and even hit the dance floor!

Sunday, 21 March from 11 am – Boogie Woogie Brunch
The festival will conclude at the Café-théâtre de La Tour de Rive with a musical brunch featuring all the artists, joined by a few surprise guests.

A weekend filled with music, sharing and good vibes – not to be missed!
