RESTAURANT BÖZINGENBERG

Perched high above Biel and surrounded by meadows and forests, the charming Bözingenberg inn offers a spectacular panorama over the Seeland region. From here, you can admire sweeping views of Lakes Biel, Neuchâtel and Murten, with the Bernese Alps rising in the background all the way to Mont Blanc.

The restaurant serves honest, seasonal cuisine prepared with fresh, predominantly regional products. The team delights guests with authentic, uncomplicated dishes full of flavour. On warm summer days, the terrace becomes a highlight, where you can enjoy not only the stunning views but also a glass of chilled white wine or a freshly poured beer. On cooler or rainy days, the newly renovated dining room provides a cosy atmosphere, especially when enjoying a traditional Swiss cheese fondue.
