NEUCHALLENGE

This tour has become the region's must-do challenge for all fans of steep climbs. The route is open from springtime onwards, entirely free of charge; thanks to timekeeping terminals on each pass, you can compare your performance with other keen pedallers.

GOOD TO KNOW

- These automatically timed ascents enable participants to set their personal reference times and to compare themselves with other participants. It's easy: pick up a membership card (available at the start), fill it out, stamp it at the initial timekeeping point, tackle the climb and stamp again at the arrival. A ranking will then be available online
