MUSEUM MURTEN

The permanent exhibition documents 6,000 years of history of the town of Murten and the surrounding region. Museum objects tell their own stories – and those of the people who lived at the time:

- Lakeside settlements from the Neolithic and Bronze Age
- Life and work in the medieval town
- Murten under the rule of Bern and Fribourg
- The path into the modern era

A dramatically staged multimedia show brings to life the events of the memorable Battle of Murten.

Every year, the museum presents new temporary exhibitions.
