MOUNTAIN LEADER CHRISTOPHE LÉCHOT

With DahuTrek, explore nature in a different way and let yourself be guided by Christophe Léchot, a passionate UIMLA-certified mountain guide who enthusiastically shares his love of the Jura and the Seeland. His authentic approach combines wildlife spotting, immersion in the great outdoors and the simple pleasure of walking, all under professional guidance laced with humour and kindness.

The digital detox weekends offered by DahuTrek are an invitation to slow down: during a break away from screens, reconnect with what really matters. Between moments of calm, rejuvenating walks and sharing stories around the fire, these getaways allow you to rediscover a more authentic connection with yourself and the natural world.

For those curious about biodiversity, set off in the footsteps of the beaver, a true engineer of wetlands. By following the clues left along the waterways, you'll discover its history, its impact on the landscape and the challenges associated with its return to our regions. This immersion along the water offers a fresh perspective on the life of this discreet yet fascinating rodent.

The awakening of the marmots at Chasseral is one of the highlight experiences: one of the few marmot populations in the Jura Mountains has made its home here. DahuTrek takes you to the best vantage points, where, with a little patience and a quiet approach, you might just catch a glimpse of these adorable sentinels of the mountain pastures going about their business in their natural habitat.

Finally, the Fondue & Constellations outing is a magical experience, available all year round. After the hike, a delicious local fondue awaits you, shared beneath a starry sky. Drawing on mythology, legends and scientific explanations, Christophe reveals the secrets of the night sky before a return journey by moonlight – a memory that will stay with you for a long time.

Founded by an enthusiast keen to offer authentic and environmentally friendly experiences, DahuTrek prides itself on creating meaningful adventures, where nature once again becomes a place of wonder and deep connection.
