PIANO À SAINT-URSANNE

The Crescendo association produces both the Piano à Porrentruy and Piano à Saint-Ursanne festivals. With their roots in the Jura, the two festivals are located at the crossroads of three borders. Porrentruy and Saint-Ursanne, both known for their charm and architectural heritage and linked in partnership by their piano festival, thus combine cultural richness with acoustic quality.

In its 19th edition, Piano à Saint-Ursanne will present the revival of a concert format of about 70 minutes of music without intermission. The thematic thread of the festival is dedicated to Alexander Scriabine, whose 150th birthday will be celebrated.
