

RIDING, ASUEL

AU CHEVAL BLANC

To help you experience the world of horses, "Le Cheval Blanc" in Asuel offers several equestrian activities, such as understanding and approaching horses, guided tours in small groups and horse-drawn carriage rides.

Activities to discover horses are available for children from 3 years and older and adapted to all levels.

The guided tours and carriage rides can be organized with variable durations, depending on personal preference.

Information and prices upon request.

For those who would like to learn more about traditional methods of working with horses, several outdoor activities are available around this theme.
