

RESTAURANTS, LES RASSES

CHASSERON HOTEL-RESTAURANT

The Chasseron Hotel-Restaurant and its terrace benefit from a breathtaking panorama of the Jura massif in its entirety in France and Switzerland. More than 250 km of alpine peaks rise on the horizon. The hotel is a perfect stopover for hikers in summer and snowshoe and sealskin fans in winter. It offers overnight stays with a capacity of 36 beds. The restaurant has a varied menu of typical regional dishes served in a friendly setting.

Specialities: Fondue made with sparkling Mauler wine and beef tartar.

The Chasseron Hotel-Restaurant is on their annual vacation in december.
