GUIDED CITY TOUR, LA NEUVEVILLE

DETECTIVE TOUR "WHO KILLED LIEUTENANT JACQUAT?"

"He looked out one of the windows of his office. In this early spring, La Neuveville was becoming Mediterranean again. The sun had lost its white glare of winter. It gave the medieval city a sensual touch. If you paid attention, you could hear the roofs humming with delight. But people didn't have the time."

La Neuveville, a medieval gem in the Grand Chasseral on the shores of Lake Biel, reveals its secrets in a guided tour based on the murder of Lieutenant Jacquat. Adapted from the novel "Le Fourmi-Lion", by Jacques Hirt, this two-hour stroll through the town and its surroundings follows the police investigation led by Commissioner Bouvier.
