ORGANIC DELIGHTS IN MURTEN

On this culinary journey it's all about organic vegetables from the Seeland. In the heart of the old town of Murten, you will have the opportunity to discover organically produced delicacies from the region. Local top chefs will prepare unique vegetarian dishes from sustainable agriculture to pamper your palate. A culinary delight that harmonises perfectly with selected organic wines from the Vully.

A total of ten food stands ensure tasty and enjoyable breaks. A relaxed market atmosphere and good company among like-minded people is one of the highlights of this experience for all visitors.

In the interest of sustainability, all tableware will be reusable or at least compostable. In addition, all visitors will receive their personal glass and cutlery, which will be used during the journey through the old town of Murten.

Whether among friends, as a couple or with the family - Book your place now and experience the first edition of our organic delights event in Murten!
