

CULTURAL HERITAGE, LA CHAUX-DE-FONDS

VILLA FALLET

This city dwelling from 1906 bears witness to the pupils of Charles L'Eplattenier, who were seeking a regionalist style in the Art Nouveau spirit: later to be known as the "Style sapin" (pine tree style). Charles-Edouard Jeanneret was placed in charge of drawing up the plans and supervising the construction site with the architect René Chapallaz.

PRICES

| Single price | Free |
|---|---------|
| Public opening | |
| Prices for groups - Guided tour | CHF 100 |
| Up to 5 people | CHF 150 |
| From 6 to 10 people | CHF 200 |
| From 11 to 20 people | CHF 300 |
| From 21 to 40 people | CHF 60 |
| Swiss public schools (per class) | CHF 100 |
| Swiss and foreign private schools (per class) | |

GOOD TO KNOW

- Guided tours upon reservation (max. 20 people per guide)
- Languages : English, French, German and Italian
- The Villa Fallet is open to the public one Sunday a month. Short guided tour at 11am
- The Villa Fallet is part of the tour "Le Corbusier's first villas", organised by the tourist office

CONTACT

Villa Fallet Chemin de Pouillerel 1 2300 La Chaux-de-Fonds

info@villafallet.ch villafallet.ch

